NOGDAWINDAMIN
FAMILY AND COMMUNITY SERVICES

The need for Alternative Care homes has never been greater.

Supporting children, families, and your community can take many forms. You may choose to offer your home and family to:

- care for extended family members
- support and care for any child in need
- provide short-term relief or respite for other Alternative Care families
- be available for emergency care

Who We Are

Nogdawindamin Family and Community Services (NFCS) is a culturally grounded, child and family focused, multi-service agency supporting the Seven First Nations of the North Shore. At NFCS, we pride ourselves on doing things differently. By joining our agency, you will be welcomed into a diverse family supporting our communities.

What is Alternative Care?

In Anishinaabemowin, Alternative Care is referred to as "Genawenman Binojiuk" which means "Looking after our Children". By becoming an approved Alternative Care home, you will be supporting our families and children in a nurturing, holistic way, rooted in the Seven Grandfather Teachings.

Why Nog?

Because we're different.

We value your commitment and our Alternative Care Team will do everything we can to ensure you have the resources you need. From Cultural Services and events to in-home support, our knowledgeable staff at NFCS will support you through every step of your journey.
